

PEACEMAKER

Nimo Patel

Nimo Patel found his way to his current work in India via success and fame in the USA as a young man. He is now based in the Gandhi Ashram in Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India. He works in grassroots arts-based service work with underprivileged children, within the program of Manav Sadhna, an organisation dedicated to help the poorest communities in Ahmedabad.

His Empty Hands project works to spread seeds of goodness through its music, events & sharings all across the world.

He wishes to dedicate the recent Empty Hands video, “We Shall Overcome”, to our Virtual Walk for Peace.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=S6FN0EmK87c>

Next week we shall still be in India, and our peacemaker then will be the man who is Nimo’s greatest inspiration, Mahatma Gandhi.

‘The law of love could be best understood and learned through little children.’

Mahatma Gandhi

