

FUN FACT

Yorkshire

- 1 Famous people from Yorkshire include: Alan Bennett, Barbara Cartland, Arthur Ransome, J B Priestly, Ted Hughes, James Cook, W H Auden, William Wilberforce, David Hockney and the 3 Brontë sisters.
- 2 The tallest ever English man, William Bradley (1787 to 1820), was 7 feet 9 inches in height and came from Yorkshire.
- 3 Wensleydale cheese was first made in 1150 by French Cistercian monks who had settled in the Yorkshire Dales.
- 4 Yorkshire is famous for Yorkshire pudding, stainless steel, Marks and Spencer and cricket legends.
- 5 Charles Blodwin once walked across Hardraw Falls on a tightrope stopping half way to cook an omelette.

Scotland

Did you know?

Most of us have heard of the Loch Ness monster, Nessie. Did you know that Scotland has another monster called, Morag? Morag lives in Loch Moran and is said to be 30 feet in length, have brown lumpy skin, possess 3 humps and the head of a snake. Loch Moran is even deeper than Loch Ness and is over 1,000 feet deep in places.

